REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

[Revised Advertisement.]

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given, at cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India R30 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index for which a separate charge will be made).

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be R45 in India, and 3 guineas in England. The period of registration of subscribers' names will expire on the 1st October.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

[Revised Advertisement.]

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The price to subscribers will be in India R30 and in England 2 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index for which a separate charge will be made).

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole set.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately. The price to non-subscribers will be Rs 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England. The period of registration of subscribers' names will expire on the 1st October.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By Dr. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 550 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The period of registration of subscribers' names having expired on the 1st October, the price will in future be in India, R 45 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made). An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England, at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R 6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By Dr. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 359 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The period of registration of subscribers' names having expired on the 1st October, the price will in future be in India R45 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made). An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England, at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately.

No. 1263—115-II.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by Section 11 of Act XIX of 1883 (The Land Improvement Loans Act), the Chief Commissioner, with the approval of the Governor-General in Council, is pleased to frame the following rules for the temporary exemption of improvements from assessment to land-revenue in cases where the improvement is made with the aid of a loan under the said Act, and consists of reclamation of waste land, or of the irrigation of land assessed at unirrigated rates:—

These rules shall come into force, with effect from the 1st November, 1891.

Rule 1.—Reclamation of Waste Land.—When land is reclaimed from waste with the aid of a loan granted under Act XIX of 1883, and is brought under cultivation, the increase in value derived from the improvement shall not be taken into account in revising the assessment of land-revenue on the land until the expiration of a period of five years, reckoned from the beginning of the harvest first reaped after such reclamation was effected.

2. Improvement by Irrigation.—When land assessed at unirrigated rates is improved by irrigation with the aid of a loan granted under Act XIX of 1883, the increase in value derived from the improvement shall not be taken into account in revising the assessment of land-revenue on the land—

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

[Revised Advertisement.]

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 Royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The period of registration of subscribers' names having expired on the 1st October, the price will in future be in India R45 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made). An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England, at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole set.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

[Revised Advertisement.]

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The period of registration of subscribers' names having expired on the 1st October, the price will in future be in India R45 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made). An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England, at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole sets.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately.

THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, the 7th November, 1891.

No. 3400—377-91.—Under the provisions of Section 55, Clause (g) of the Excise Act (XXII of 1881), the Resident in Mysore hereby sanctions the introduction of the following Rules for the exercise of proper check over consignments of liquor sent from the Mysore Government Distillery to the wholesale depôt in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, and the disposal of the rahadaris which accompany them, and the audit of the accounts of realizations of the dues recoverable from the contractor:—

1. Every consignment of liquor will be covered by a rahadari in Form No. 1 appended, which should be with the cartman as proof of his authority to carry; a duplicate thereof shall, at the same time, be sent on to the 2nd Magistrate, in Form No. 2 appended. The counterfoil of the rahadari and duplicate (Form No. 3 appended) shall be retained in the Distillery Office. The rahadari, its duplicate and counterfoil, should all have the same serial number printed on them.

2. The cart with the liquor and the rahadaris must first be taken to the 2nd Magistrate, or to such other official as he may depute for this purpose.

3. The contents of the rahadari should be compared with the duplicate received by the 2nd Magistrate as well as with the details painted on the casks, and the seals on the casks examined. Discrepancies found should be reported to the Special Assistant Commissioner, Excise Department, and the Collector and Superintendent, Excise Revenue, in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

4. The date and hour should then be recorded on the back of the rahadari under the signature and designation of the official appointed by the 2nd Magistrate for this purpose, and the consignment then passed on to the depôt to be there booked.

5. The rahadari should at once be sent back by the depôt wholesale vendor to the 2nd Magistrate or the official appointed by the 2nd Magistrate, who should see that the wholesale vendor has filled in the receipt on reverse of Form No. 1, and that it has been verified by the Government officer who passed the consignment.

6. All the rahadaris dated and issued in any one month should, before the 5th of the following month, be brought with a "patti" giving name of depôt, number, date, and contents of pass (Gallons, Drams) to the 2nd Magistrate, who will, after satisfying himself that the instructions given above have been fully complied with, score the rahadari across thus x in red ink from end to end, write the word "cancelled" across the face of each pass under his seal and signature, and send the patti and the cancelled rahadaris on to the Collector and Superintendent, Excise Revenue, in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore. Rahadaris dated and issued in one month, the consignments under which do not arrive before the 1st of the following month, should be dealt with as above, and a supplemental patti sent with them.

7. The 2nd Magistrate shall keep a register, in Form No. 4 appended; of duplicates which may be sent to him under Rule 1. The particulars should be entered in this register in abstract as soon as they are received. The duplicate rahadari should be crossed x at the time the original is cancelled under Rule 6, and the corresponding entry in the register ticked off. If any consignment, which has been advised in a duplicate rahadari, is not received within a reasonable time, after the period allowed in the rahadari, the 2nd Magistrate shall at once report the same to the Collector and Superintendent, Excise Revenue, who will institute the necessary enquiries. For this purpose, the Register of Rahadaris should be scrutinized by the 2nd Magistrate every week.

8. On receipt of the cancelled rahadaris at the Collector's Office, the contents given on the patti should be compared with the abstract account of issues of liquor from the Distillery sent by the Special Assistant Commissioner, Akbari and Excise, monthly to the Collector and Superintendent, Excise Revenue, and the patti and the file of cancelled rahadaris then sent on to the First Assistant to the Resident with remarks, if any.

9. As the rahadaris are received at the Resident's Office, they will be compared with the detailed accounts received from the Special Assistant Commissioner, and will be returned, after being checked, to the Collector, who will retain them as vouchers for six months after each contract has been closed, when they may be destroyed under the supervision of some responsible officer.

10. When consignments are received without a rahadari, the liquor should be attached, and the matter at once brought to the notice of the 2nd Magistrate. If he is satisfied that no fraud exists, he may release the liquor on the security of the wholesale vendor, intimating particulars to the Collector, who, after the necessary enquiry, will direct the issue of a special rahadari to cover the consignment. This special rahadari shall be in the same form and issued in the same manner as the ordinary rahadaris, but on paper of a different color. It shall be issued by the Special Assistant Commissioner, who will sign the same and keep a register and the counterfoils.

11. If the contents in gallons or the number as given in the original rahadari and its duplicate materially differ from those noted on the cask, the liquor will be sent on to the depôt with the precautions which are required to be taken under Rule 10, to be there examined either by the 2nd Magistrate himself or by the officer appointed by him, and a report of such examination should be forwarded to the Special Assistant Commissioner through the Collector.

12. The Collector will give such of the Police Officers as are invested with the powers of Excise Officers under the Resident's Notification No. 11, dated the 21st August, 1885, to understand that it is their duty to see that liquors or drugs when taken are covered by a Government rahadari, and that, if they are so not covered, they should hand over the parties in possession of such liquors or drugs to the nearest Police Station for disposal according to law.

By Order,
C. W. RAVENSHAW, Captain.
First Asst. to the Resident.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

[Revised Advertisement.]

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India.

By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes of this work are now ready for issue, and intending subscribers are invited to register their names with the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries, and confirmed the vernacular names; so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 359 royal octavo pages; Volume II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Volume III contains the letters D, E, F, and half of G; Volume IV, latter half of G to middle of L, and Volume V contains the latter half of L to end of "O". The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in seven volumes during the current year, but an eighth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.

The period of registration of subscribers' names having expired on the 1st October, the price will in future be in India R45 and in England 3 guineas, payable in advance, for the complete set (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made). An extra charge for packing and postage will be made for the set—in India, at 8 annas per volume, and for England, at 2 rupees 6 annas per volume.

For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, R6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole set.

No copies will be issued to non-subscribers till the work is complete, and no single volume will be sold separately.
